

Red Sled

by Lita Judge

WRITING PROMPTS

+

STORY ELEMENTS

By

MY MOUNTAIN WILD

www.mymountainwild.com

Name: _____

Red Sled

by Lita Judge

Story Elements:

Genre : _____

Author: _____

Setting: _____

Main characters: _____

Conflict: _____

Climax (one large event that changes the outcome of the entire story) : _____

Plot (the sequence of all events in a story- summarize the story): _____

Conflict: the major problem in the story

Two categories of conflict:

1. external: happens outside of the character, involves more than 1 person, and can be observed
2. internal: happens inside the character, involves only 1 person, and can only be observed through thoughts and feelings

Three types of conflict:

1. man vs. self (internal)
2. man vs. nature (external)
3. man vs. man (internal or external)

Name: _____

Red Sled

by Lita Judge

Story Elements: Dialogue

What do you think the animals are saying to each other or to themselves? Don't forget to use quotation marks!

Bear says...

Moose says...

The raccoons say...

Name: _____

Red Sled

by Lita Judge

Story Elements: Dialogue

What do you think the animals are saying to each other or to themselves? Don't forget to use quotation marks!

Rabbit says...

Porcupine says...

The mouse says...

Name: _____

Red Sled

by Lita Judge

Story Elements: Characters

List all the characters in Red Sled

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____

Name: _____

Red Sled

by Lita Judge

Story Elements: Setting

Describe the setting of the story in detail. Try to paint a picture in the reader’s mind. What if this book only had words and no illustrations? Write out a list of words or short phrases/ sentences to narrate the setting (A setting is the time and place of the story- WHEN and WHERE? Use adjectives (describing words) too! (hint: think about taste/smell, what you hear, see and feel)

Name: _____

Red Sled

by Lita Judge

Quick writing prompts

Which animal is your favorite in this story?

Do you think the animals had fun sledding? Why do you think that?

Would you go sledding with friendly woodland animals?
